MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Briefing of Ms. Fosdick on Angola

1. Mr. Cary and I called on Ms. Fosdick on Friday, December 12, at her request to discuss Angola. With the Director's concurrence, we told her current newspaper stories about US involvement in Angola were reasonably accurate but, if Senator Jackson wished further details, he should contact Senator Stennis.

2. The briefing actually was in two increments because of scheduling problems. The second session consisted largely of describing Soviet materiel support to the MPLA, the degree of Cuban involvement, and a detailed background on the three contending factions.
